About Knight Enterprises Inc.

For 22 years, Knight Enterprises Inc. has been providing reliable computers and networks to thriving small and medium sized businesses in Alberta. We know that every business depends on systems that work properly from the start and on expertise that can keep them working. Knight's solutions are built on Windows Small Business Server 2003 Standard or Premium as the most stable and widely supported infrastructure for small business. Because small businesses are as easily devastated by system failure as corporations, Knight provides corporate quality hardware and reliable backup systems designed to match each business's tolerance for down-time. We focus on Exchange Server with Outlook as a primary line-of-business application for every customer, and the ability to collaborate through this system, including via mobile devices and remote connections, as critical to daily operations of any business. We provide our own high-security internet service, WebArmour Internet, over which that collaboration can safely occur. Moreover, knowing that small businesses want the ability to collaborate in sales and customer service activities beyond email alone, and that most lack an effective, affordable way to do so, Knight provides Microsoft CRM 3.0 sales and implementation services. By adding Microsoft CRM 3.0, Knight is able to elevate the small business technology infrastructure from a simple business necessity to a measurable business advantage for our customers.
